

Charlotte County Archives

Finding Aid - Account of trial for murder, Thomas Hutchingson (MC208)

Generated by Charlotte County Archives on January 27, 2022

Language of description: English

Charlotte County Archives

123 Frederick Street

St. Andrews

New Brunswick

Canada

E5B 1Z1

Telephone: 506-529-4248

Email: contact@ccarchives.ca

<http://www.ccarchives.ca>

<http://search.canbarchives.ca/account-of-trial-of-tom-roland-hutchings-for-murder-st-andrew>

Account of trial for murder, Thomas Hutchingson

Table of contents

Summary information	3
Scope and content	3
Notes	3
Physical condition	3
Access points	4

Summary information

Repository: Charlotte County Archives

Title: Account of trial for murder, Thomas Hutchingson

Title [statRep]: Papers donated by Mr. George Goodeill - St. Andrews. Copies are located at Charlotte County Archives

Reference code: MC208

Date: 1942 - ? (date of creation)

Language: English

Physical description: .5 cm textual material ; items are photocopies of newspaper articles and a photocopy of hand-written account of events culminating in the conviction of Thomas Roland Hutchings for murder

Custodial history

George Goodeil, keeper of the Charlotte County Gaol

Scope and content

This personal account lists all those concerned in the trial and conviction of Hutchings for the murder of Bernice Connors near Black's Harbour, 7 June 1942. Both Hutchings and the trial were held in St. Andrews. George Goodeill wrote the account of the trial and the events leading up to it. Goodiell supposedly, disputes some of the information given in the book "Six for the Hangman". The item is also accompanied by newspaper clippings from September-December, 1942.

Notes

Title notes

Physical condition

Excellent condition

Immediate source of acquisition

Papers donated by George Goodeill. Charlotte County Archives retain these copies.

Other notes

- Publication status: Published
-

Access points

- Textual record (documentary form)
 - St. Andrews (place)
-

Collection holdings
