

Charlotte County Archives

Finding Aid - The Introduction of Black Bass to Wheaton Lake (MC 892)

Generated by Access to Memory (AtoM) 2.5.4 Printed: April 14, 2021

Language of description: English

Charlotte County Archives

123 Frederick Street

St. Andrews

New Brunswick

Canada

E5B 1Z1

Telephone: 506-529-4248

Email: contact@ccarchives.ca

<http://www.ccarchives.ca>

<http://search.canbarchives.ca/index.php/the-introduction-of-black-bass-to-wheaton-lake>

The Introduction of Black Bass to Wheaton Lake

Table of contents

Summary information	3
Scope and content	3
Notes	3
Physical condition	3
Access points	3
Collection holdings	4
MC 892-MS1, Correspondence (1920)	4

Summary information

Repository: Charlotte County Archives

Title: The Introduction of Black Bass to Wheaton Lake

ID: MC 892

Date: 1920 (date of creation)

Language: English

Physical description: 0.1 cm of Textual Records.

Scope and content

This collection contains material related to a proposal to have black bass introduced to Wheaton Lake in Charlotte County.

Notes

Title notes

Physical condition

Good.

Location of originals

4G3

Other notes

- Publication status: Published
-

Access points

- Correspondence (documentary form)
 - Fishing (subject)
 - Tourist destinations (subject)
 - Science and technology (subject)
-

- Lakes (subject)
- St. Andrews (place)
- Charlotte County (place)

Collection holdings

Series: MC 892-MS1 - Correspondence

Title: Correspondence

ID: MC 892-MS1

Date: 1920 (date of creation)

Scope and content:

This series contains letters from various members of the Charlotte County community, including the Secretary of the Executive Committee of the St. Andrews Benefit League A. Mallory, to Thomas A. Hartt, the M.P. for Charlotte County in Ottawa. All of these letters are requests to have Thomas Hartt use his influence to convince C.C. Ballantyne, the Minister of Marine and Fisheries and the Navy, to introduce black bass to Wheaton Lake in order to stimulate an interest in fishing and further stimulate tourism in the Charlotte County area.

Note [generalNote]:

Originally contained in a bundle of unprocessed material with other items.

Publication status:

Published

Alpha-numeric designations:

Acc.2021.092
